

Jackson County Historical Society News

VOLUME NINE, NUMBER FOUR

JULY 2002

WE HAVE MOVED TO THE COMMERCE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Join us on Sunday, July 21, 2:30 for an Open House

Location: Heritage Room of the Commerce Public Library, 1344 South Broad Street
(across the railroad tracks from Commerce First Baptist Church)

Program: "How to Research Your Heritage using Books, Microfilm and the World Wide Web"

The Historical Society's move to the Commerce Library is a natural melding of two excellent research collections. The benefits are longer hours of operation, internet access, microfilm readers, a staff with a commitment of service to the public and an established collection of research material.

The Jackson County Historical Society was organized in 1975. Their early efforts resulted in a slide presentation, which was first shown in 1977 and produced into a video tape "Jackson County—Pageant of Years" in 1989. In 1988, the Historical Society was given space in the Crawford Long Museum and many of the photographs were used in the history panels at the Museum.

The Historical Society expanded the photograph project in 1995 and copied photographs representing all the communities in the county. The collection is partially indexed and a search for photographs continues.

Hours of operation:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday: 10:00–6:00, Thursday: 10:00–8:00, Saturday 10:00–5:00
