Dear New Patron,

Thank you for completing an institutional library card application for your organization. We welcome you to the Piedmont Regional Library System. Your library card allows you access to any library in the PINES network. That's almost every library in the state! Your library card allows you to check out 50 items at a time.

You can find your local library by visiting our website at prlib.org/our-libraries. You may also use your library card number and the password listed below to check your account online and access ebooks and other online services at prlib.org.

Your library card number: _____

Your password: _____

We encourage you to stop in soon to take advantage of all the services we have to offer you. We hope to see you soon.

See you in the library!
